Pueblo's Behavioral Health Response Team will provide the following activities for the youth after the scenario plays out. These will be 50 minutes sessions with 10 minutes for students to rotate to next session; 200 kids to attend each session at a time.

- 1) Teen Dating Violence by the YWCA Family Crisis Shelter.
- 2) Drugs and Alcohol and the development of the adolescent brain by MADD.
- 3) Safe ToTell, Colorado State Law guarantees students or anyone else a safe, anonymous way to report information they have about a crime, potentially dangerous situation, or other concerns.
